Our Speakers

Anne Coles

Along with her husband John, Anne took over the leadership of New Wine from David and Mary Pytches in 2001. John and Anne have recently started a new missional congregation meeting in a home, and are passionate about seeing local churches change nations. Anne speaks regularly at national New Wine women's events.

Julia Chamberlin

Julia is Children's and Families Adviser for Ely Diocese and leads women's ministry at All Saints Milton, where her husband David is Rector. She has four children and one granddaughter. Julia is passionate about encouraging the church to show and share God's love in our communities and seeks to inspire and support parishes across the Diocese of Ely in their ministry and mission with children and their families. Julia is also an ordinand, training for ministry at St Mellitus College.

New this year! Leadership Networking

If you are leading a church, or in leadership alongside your husband, or in training for leadership, we would love to invite you to spend time over lunch meeting with Anne and with one another. Please let us know you would like to take part by indicating on your online booking, or by ticking the box on the booking form below.
